THE COTTON MARKET.

Liverpool opened unchanged as expected and forecasted Tuesday morning.

The American markets opened unchanged, and in the matter of price changes there was nothing doing. There was very little demand for spot cotton at any time yesterday. However, it is the opinion of those who are in a position to form and express ideas on the situation, that the market is dragging very close to the bottom now. Of course, there may be a slight decline yet, even from the present low level, but the mills appear to be in the market now, and that means the staple is cheap enough.

The cotton market was dull yesterday and fluctuations were confined within extremely narrow bounds.

Bryan prices yesterday:
Strict Low Middling, 8 1-8c.
Middling, 8 3-8c.
Strict Middling, 8 1-2c.
Good Middling, 8 5-8c.
Sales yesterday, 200 bales.
Liverpool is due to open unchanged today.

Lord Hoghton Dalton and Mr. Collier Made Members Last Night.

Bryan lodge No. 859, B. P. O. E. is perhaps the only one of the order in the State that has among its members a real English lord. Lord John Hoghton Dalton, whose British address is Dalton Estate office, Lancaster, England, crossed over the rough mountain trail at a meeting of the lodge here last night, and now grazes in the fertile and green pastures of Elkdom.

Lord Dalton has resided in Texas for quite a while. In fact, Lord Dalton seems to prefer life in the land of the free and home of the brave to existence in the tight little Isle on the other side.

Mr. R. B. Collier, of Mumfords, also had the horns set at the meeting last night. Mr. Collier is a well known stock raiser and land owner of the Mumfords district.

The membership of the Bryan lodge is recognized for its progressiveness, and the lodge room will no doubt compare favorably with any of its size in appointments. It is frequently the scene of social functions, and the season now at hand will perhaps add to the many triumphs scored within its walls.

CENTENARY OF COLLEGE

The 100th Anniversary of "The Cradle of Bishops" Celebrated. Special to Bryan Morning Eagle.

Emmitsburg, Md., Oct. 14.—A score of church dignitaries and hundreds of Catholic laity throughout the country gathered here today to participate in a two days' celebration of the centenary of Mount St. Mary's College, America's most historic Roman Catholic higher institution of learning. The town as well as the college, is in gala attire in honor of the occasion, and during the two days of the celebration there will be a succession of banquets, speeches, musical and dramatic performances by the students, and other features of interest.

The celebration was formally opened today with a pontifical mass of thanksgiving. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Cunningham of Pittsburg, who graduated from Mount St. Mary's in the class of '78. Among the eminent prelates in attendance at the mass were Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore and Archbishop Falconio, the apostolic delegate at Washington. Tomorrow night the celebration will conclude with a banquet at which Richard M. Reilly of Lancaster, Pa., will deliver the oration, and the Rev. Patrick L. Duffy of Charleston, S. C., will recite an ode composed for the occasion.

Mount St. Mary's is justly entitled to the honors now being paid her. The college is known as the "cradle of bishops" from the fact that so many of America's bishops have been students here. Among the noted prelates who studied here were Cardinal McCloskey, America's first cardinal; Bishop Benne, the "guardian angel of the mount;" Archbishop John Hughes of New York, who served as a gardener during his first year to pay his tuition; Archbishop Purcell and Bishops

Those of the laity who later brought lustre to the name of the college include Attorney General Bonaparte, Justice White of the Supreme Court, George Miles, the poet, and General Thomas Anderson, the first American commander at Manila.

Mount St. Mary's is the pioneer secular college. Since the establishment of the college there have occupied its presidential chair many clergymen who, like its founder, Father John Dubois, later rose to high places of honor in the church.

Shakes Buildings For Blocks.

New York, Oct. 14.—A bomb was thrown early Wednesday into the big enclosure of the New York Taxicab company in Eighth avenue, where 250 taxicabs were stored for the night. The explosion shook buildings for blocks and hundreds of persons in the neighborhood were thrown into wild excitement. The explosion tore a great hole in the ground. Striking chauffeurs declare the missile was hurled in an attempt to turn public sympathy against them or by some misguided sympathizers.

"Yes. Does it contain perfume?"

Inspector Cowhided.

Hagan, Ga., Oct. 14.—United States Postoffice Inspector George Hill was mercilessly cowhided here by Postmaster Miller because of alleged improper conduct by the Inspector to Mrs. Hattie Elders, a pretty young widow, employed in the postoffice. Hill came here to check up the office, and it is alleged that during the checking his conduct was so offensive to Mrs. Elders that she left the office and went to her home near by. Hill followed her, entered the house, and it is alleged, made improper proposals. The young woman spurned the Inspector and told her story to Postmaster Miller.

The latter at once procured a stout cowhide, hunted up Inspector Hill and thrashed him. Miller did not quit until the cowhide was worn out and Hill was shrieking for mercy. Many citizens witnessed the cowhiding and applauded Miller. Hill was reported to the department.
